Students interested in a career in the legal profession should contact the Political Science and Public Administration Department for referral to one of the pre-law advisers who have significant experience assisting students who wish to prepare for law school. There is a specific political science/pre-law major available to students, but law schools will accept students with other majors. Pre-law advisers help students select appropriate course work to prepare them for law school, fulfill other prerequisites for law school admission and assist them with applying to law schools.

Pre-Professional Programs

Northern Michigan University offers a number of Pre-professional programs through various departments on campus. Although they are not academic majors, these programs provide relevant skills and program admission criteria to students wishing to further their education at other institutions. No degrees are awarded, however.

Advising for each of the Pre-Professional programs is given through the respective sponsoring departments, and is also offered during the entirety of the curriculum. This is to ensure that students and their faculty advisers share important information and avoid confusion regarding future enrollment at other institutions. Advisers will also help students entry into the professional program of their choice.

These programs are a great opportunity for students with specific career aspirations to get a solid start on their formal education. Because of the nature of the programs, a great deal of communication between institutions is required. The motivated student will initiate correspondence with respective institutions to ensure transition from school to school.
