

Paralegal

The mission of the Paralegal Studies program at Northern Michigan University is to provide students with a wide range of legal skills and knowledge essential to the legal profession including legal research, report writing, brief preparation, and case analysis and knowledge in specialized areas such as contracts, probate, real estate or criminal law. Paralegals or legal assistants help lawyers in their work. They perform some of the same tasks as lawyers. Paralegals investigate cases, do legal research, look up laws and cases, write reports, prepare contracts, and keep track of the documents.

Skills and Competencies

Paralegals and legal assistants typically do the following:

- Investigate the facts of a case
- Conduct research on relevant laws, regulations, and legal articles
- Organize and maintain documents in a paper or electronic filing systems
- Gather and arrange evidence and other legal documents for attorney review and case preparation
- Write reports to help lawyers prepare for trials
- Draft correspondence and legal documents, such as contracts and mortgages
- Get affidavits and other formal statements that may be used as evidence in court
- Help lawyers during trials by handling exhibits, taking notes, or reviewing trial transcripts
- File exhibits, briefs, appeals and other legal documents with the court or opposing counsel
- Call clients, witnesses, lawyers, and outside vendors to schedule interviews, meetings, and depositions
