

TO A NEW ADVENTURE, BUT ALWAYS

NORTH

At Northern Michigan University, we know times of change can feel a little uncertain, but can also be a chance to explore what's next. With over 170 programs, our students like their lectures by Lake Superior, unleash their creativity in state-of-the art studios, and connect with professors that bring them along on research excursions – all while creating relationships that last a lifetime.

NORTHLAND COLLEGE

MAJORS/SPECIAL PROGRAMS

Art
Biology
Business Management
Chemistry
Education
Engineering*
English
Environmental Education*
Environmental Studies*
Fisheries and Wildlife Ecology*
Geographic Information Systems*
Geology
History
Humanity and Nature Studies
Mathematical Sciences
Music*
Native American Studies
Natural Resources
Outdoor Education
Philosophy*
Physics*
Pre-Health Care*
Pre-Law
Pre-Veterinary Medicine*
Psychology
Sociology and Social Justice
Spanish*
Sustainable Agriculture and Food Systems*
Sustainable Community Development
Water Science
Writing

NORTHERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY

MAJORS

Art and Design
Biology
Business (Management)
Chemistry
Elementary/Secondary Education
Pre-Engineering or Engineering Technology
English
Environmental Studies and Sustainability
Environmental Studies and Sustainability
Fisheries and Wildlife Management
Geographic Information Science and Technology
Environmental Science
History
Environmental Studies and Sustainability
Mathematics
Music
Native American Studies
Environmental Science
Outdoor Recreation Leadership Management
Philosophy
Physics
Pre-Medicine
Pre-Law
Pre-Veterinary Medicine
Psychology
Sociology
Spanish
Indoor Agriculture/Controlled Environment Ag
Sustainable Business and Enterprise Creation
Environmental Science
Writing

* Available only as a minor, emphasis, or special program.

A LITTLE TRIP EAST - TO FIND A NEW HOME NORTH

NORTHERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY