A. Updates

1. Academic Affairs - Olivia Fuhrman

a. Met with Carol Johnson, Dean of College of Business, talked about Covid.

b. Group of Absence Policy is finished, Olivia sent it Friday to a couple of Deans that she has met with, waiting to hear back from the Deans.

c. Zora and Olivia are planning to meet with Carrie Shoeling within the next week or so.

d. Academic affairs is working on reaching out to Alumni and figuring out the best way to do so. They are also trying to get feedback from students about different professors that is constructive, to bring to the Deans.

2. External Affairs - Zora Binert *

- a. [Please see * for form to RSVP for 1UP]
- b. 1UP is hosting a zoom on Saturday, February 27th, from 10am-1pm. So, if you would like to participate, please RSVP as soon as possible.

3. Parking and Traffic Committee - Kylie Lanser and Thomas Kettler

- a. Working on a College of Business building, waiting on a major donor in order to proceed with making this building.
- b. Marquette Transportation is a free door-to-door service for students, you can call Market transit for a pick up at your door, they will take you to the store, and bring you back. Due to Covid, there are limited seats. This is why it is a door to door service instead of Friday runs.
- c. Looking to change parking permits, looking to just having sticker permits for everyone. Trying to get feedback if this is a good idea.

4. Academic Senate - Zora Binert

- a. New Chair of the Board of Trustees.
- b. Graduation will be online this semester, wants to "spice it up" by adding pictures.
- c. Dale Kappa is stepping up as around provost, he will be Dean and Intern Provost.
- e. Waiting to hear back from allocations of Covid. Waiting to get the vaccines themselves.
- f. Carol Johnson is thinking of making a smaller program for Sustainable Business as a major, but there are not enough professors to make this major big.

B. Committee Charges

1. Ad Hoc Elections Committee Charge - Emma Drever

- a. [Please see end of minutes for charge]
- b. This is a committee to look and run our elections. It will be a non-bias process and make sure everything is running in order. Olivia Dunn and Lauren Viol will be taking over this committee.
 - i. Zora moves, Emily seconds
 - ii. Motion moves unanimously

VII. Public Comment

- a. none

VIII. Good of the Order

- a. John: "There has been appointments to ASNMU for Board of Trustees. Not allowing this just because they are upset with how the governor is not working with the legislator. Jason Morgan was ASNMU president in 2008-2009. Reach out to senator Ed McBroom. Possibly a resolution to urge the senate to move on?"
- b. Emily: "SFC sponsored an event with Alpha Si Omega, Hollywood and entertainment speakers. Frist event this Thursday at 8:00 pm with Danielle Feinberg. She has worked on childhood movies such as Finding Nemo, Monsters Inc. etc. It is also free."
- c. Zora: "If you are interested in being an RA, RD, etc. There is a meeting in Jamrich 1100 at 9:00 pm."
- d. Emma: "If you are interested in joining SLFP, the forms are due Friday. Highly encouraging you to join!"

Ad hoc Committee Charge for Elections Committee

Emma Drever, President
2 February 2020

Members of the General Assembly,

Per Article II, Section 2, Subsection F of the ASNMU Constitution which states, “ The President shall call for the determination of an election schedule” I hereby charge the Ad hoc Elections committee to determine this schedule and carry out the election procedures.

The committee shall consist of Olivia Dunn, Lauren Viol, and Jake Putala. The committee shall elect amongst itself a chair, and seek the advice of the ASNMU advisors and the ASNMU guiding documents, especially the bylaws, Article III, sections 1-3.

The goal of this committee is to publicize and carry out the ASNMU General Election, in an unbiased manner, by making public the elections packet, developing promotional material, and any other tasks deemed necessary.

The committee shall dissolve upon the swearing in of the new ASNMU.

Please contact me with questions or concerns.

Sincerely,
Emma Drever
ASNMU President
