

The Biology Department has a standard policy that a student retaking a course must retake all portions of the course (e.g. lecture, laboratory, discussion). In exceptional circumstances, a student may be able to make an arrangement at the discretion of the course instructor to not repeat one component of the course. Such arrangements are only applicable for the current semester and with that instructor.