Reaching Out

THE ASNMU REPORT

Vol. 1, Issue 3

Student Government for Northern Michigan Since 1969

11/09/2006

Greetings from the President

NMU Students,

As always, we encourage your thoughts and ideas. There are few ways to do this:

- 1) Come to our meeting – Mondays at 8:30pm in the Charcoal Room, UC
- 2) Visit our website, asnmnu.nmu.edu
- 3) Visit our office, open 9am – 5pm (M-F)

We are always looking for your input; let us know what we can do for you.

Sincerely,

Erik E. Maillard

President, ASNMU

What we are working on ...

After hours study lounge

Need a place after hours to study or meet with a group? We need your support so stop by our office and sign our petition!

Childcare Scholarship Fundraising

A Penny War will start Nov. 27th and run for two weeks in all of the residence halls. Contact Autumn at adaslev@nmu.edu for more information.

Wildcat Shuttle Committee

Whether you ride the Wildcat Shuttle or not, ASNMU is looking for your input at one of our two public meetings. Tentative meeting dates are Dec. 5th or 6th @ 6:30pm. Contact Erik at

Check out our Dozing Discounts Program!!

If you get tired or encounter poor road conditions while driving home for Thanksgiving or Winter Break, check into one of our participating hotels at a discounted rate.

For a full listing of participating hotels and motels check out asnmnu.nmu.edu/dozing or contact Jessica at jbeaver@nmu.edu for more information.

Your Student Activity Fee ...

Your Student Activity Fee (SAF) funds everything from ASNMU and the Northwind to Campus Cinema and visiting speakers. If you want more information or have questions about your Student Activity Fee, let us know!

Here are some programs your SAF has covered lately:

- Nadine Strossen- Platform Personalities
- Craig Karges – Northern Arts and Entertainment (NAE)
- Alton & Robin, cast members of Real World – Black Stu

The Student Finance Committee members. If you are interested, contact me at knewton@nmu.edu or fill out asnmnu.nmu.edu/apply/sfc.
