* Honors credit will be awarded only with a grade of "B" or higher.

In addition to normal course work, the student will work alongside their professor to write a business plan. This project will highlight knowledge learned throughout the student's college education as well as incorporate research techniques learned in this class. Student will work alongside their professor to solve real life business issues and conduct research.

This project will be graded on completeness, and critical thinking skills displayed in both research and business analysis. The completed business plan should demonstrate a well-rounded business education and well researched new business proposal.
