

Northern Michigan University School of Nursing Special Application Cycle – Fall 2025 Start

- NMU School of Nursing is offering a special application cycle for Fall 2025.
- A minimum of six (6) seats are available.
- Applicants must meet all standard admission criteria prior to the start of the Fall 2025 semester to be considered.

Application Process: opens March 10, 2025, deadline to apply April 1, 2025

- Application Details: Will be available on the NMU School of Nursing website \(www.nmu.edu/nursing\) beginning on March 10, 2025
- Selection Process:
  - All applicants, including those admitted to NMU as freshman direct admits, will be ranked using the Admission Scoring Grid (found in Appendix 3 of the BSN Student Handbook).
  - Final admission decisions will be based on overall applicant ranking.

Admission Requirements

- Prerequisite Courses:
  - Must be completed with a grade of C- or better.
  - Students who enroll in prerequisite courses during Summer 2025 will be considered for conditional admission.
- GPA Requirement:
  - Minimum overall GPA of 2.75.

Additional Information

- Applicants may take summer courses to meet the admission requirements. Applicants must provide an outline of how they will meet admission requirements within their application. Applicants do not need to provide proof of registration for summer courses at the time of application but do need to identify where and when they will be completing the remaining prerequisite coursework.
- Not all BSN program prerequisite courses will be offered at NMU during the summer of 2025. NMU summer course offerings can be found on the NMU Registrar's webpage. For those students looking to take courses during summer 2025 which are not offered at NMU, please work with your advisor and/or the NMU School of Nursing to explore your options and verify the transferability of courses from other universities/colleges.
- Conditional admission offers are contingent on successful completion of summer coursework.
- All applicants will be scored and ranked using the scoring grid and seats will be filled using the ranking system. The most highly ranked students will be offered the available seats. All applicants will be notified by April 22, 2025.
- This special application cycle does not guarantee admission for the Fall 2025 semester.
