

Northern Michigan University
Retirees Association

Minutes of the August 15, 2013, Social Event

The Social Event of August was brought to order at 10:20 AM by Vice President Yvonne Lee.

Fifty-five members and partners of the retired NMU community were present at the Jacobetti Complex and Chez Nous dining facility for the annual social and business meeting.

We paused to recognize colleagues lost during the past year.

Yvonne identified there are now 678 retirees and that we are over budget by $256.

Associate Professor Deb Pearce presented the full story of Artisan Bread, what makes it special and unique.

Explaining the twelve steps in bread making, enlightened many present.

All were given a sample to taste of differences in bread types.

Ballots were distributed for the election of the Governing Board Representatives for two year terms. The published ballot with the addition of Dan Hakala was approved and elected.

Elected: Drusilla Kierzek - Admin/Prof - Two year
Elmer Moisio - Faculty - Two year
Margaret Schwalm - TOP - Two year
Dan Hakala - Operations - Two year

The 50/50 tickets and jams were drawn with Rob Hanson the winner of the $26.50, 50/50.

The next meeting will be on Thursday, November 7, at 10 AM.

The meeting adjourned at 11:05 AM with the new executive committee staying for a planning session in the atrium of Jacobetti.

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'James Quirk', is written over the typed name.

Secretary-Treasurer NMU Retirees Association

Northern Michigan University
Retirees Association

Executive Meeting Minutes of the August 15, 2013

11:20 AM convened by vice president Yvonne Lee in the atrium of Jacobette Complex.

Present: Yvonne Lee, Grant Soltwisch, Kristine Martin, Marilyn Robbert, Margaret Schwalm, LuAnne Crupi, James Quirk

Much of the discussion concerned the programs for future meetings.

The aspect of an off campus location and the cost to the Retirees needs to be explored. Hampton Inn and other locations to be explored.

Individuals and programs of interest with their NMU connections were presented as possible future subjects for social meeting concerns:

Sue Wideman - Elder Care, Bob Hopesem - Hoop House,
The History Museum - Joy DeYoung and Kaye Hiebel - Longyear & NMU links,
Karen Larson - building a business as an NMU grad, Chris Pesola - Landmark Hotel,
Jim Koski - the story of the territory lands, Jack Deyo - photos of the past, Marcus Robyns -
What is in the NMU archives, The NCLL as a learning activity.

Future meeting dates: Nov. 7, 2013 • Feb.13, 2014 • May 15, 2014 • Aug.14, 2014

Close at 12:30pm

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'James Quirk'.

Secretary-Treasurer NMU Retirees Association