

1. Eco Reps Updates

a. What's new?

- Mindfulness & sustainability - April 11th from 5:30-6:30pm Jamrich 1311 - An evening meditation session led by Professor Angela Miller-Porter.
- Campus Clean-Up - April 13, 2024 at 11am - Meet at OLA Pavilion on NMU Campus. Join EcorReps on our campus cleanup day! All supplies will be provided. Weather dependent, please follow @nmucoreps for updates.
- Recycling 101 Skill Builder - April 18 from 5-6pm Jamrich 1311 - Learn how to recycle correctly in our community!
- Stay Pressed - Wednesday, April 24 from 12-4 pm & Thursday, April 25 from 10-4 pm (pin making event)
- Join EcoReops to create buttons surrounding social and environmental justice issues!
- Last event in Sustainable Fashion Beginner Sewing Series - April 26 - Sewing Period Supplies

b. Need for Faculty Advisor in 24-25

- Professor Stock will not be returning as advisor in the Fall
- Jason Schneider volunteers to take on this role given more information
 1. will coordinate with Jes after review of manual
 - a. green fund submission handling and feasibility

2. Earth Everything!!!

- ### a. Earth Week programming and updates.

3. Defining SHINE as a Council

- ### a. Council will have additions starting in the Fall of '24.

- Tracy Wascom, Gana Adebisi, and Tesse Sayen (from the Strategic Planning Steering Committee)

- ### b. SHINE will need to vote to elect a Chair, Vice-Chair and Secretary for 24-25.

- Nominations for Chair
 1. Tim Cleary
- Vice Chair - fills in when chair is absent:
 1. No nominations
- Secretary - notes and communication and correspondence:
- c. Final Reviews of:
 - Sustainability Council Charge
 - Call for Sustainability Fellow/Scholar
- d. Sustainability Update
 - STARS report will be submitted each year instead of every three years
 1. to be updated in smaller parts
 - Support from campus and leadership seems strong based on landscaping and Wildcat Way
 - Ornithology class supports research into a bird friendly campus
 - Strategic doing for Gen Ed tracks
 1. Sustainability may be a possible track in Gen Ed.

4. New Business

- a. The New Newsletter requires a subscription:
 - <https://nmu.edu/shine/articles>
- b. Future Meetings
 - Do we keep our same meeting time?

5. Other SHINE updates/Good of the Order

- a. Intern updates & projects
 - Dave Nyberg introduces a project/idea: Talent Partnerships - changing
 1. connecting students /faculty with employers through work based learning that benefits students and businesses
 2. Can SHINE be a place that discusses, researches, promotes this kind of interaction
 3. What do we need to organize/promote these conversations/opportunities?
 - a. sounding board
 - b. on campus presentations
 - c. list of internships

- d. awareness campaign
 - e. degree programs
 - i. specificity is important
- Piloting in medical tech a program that changes work based experiences that travels with students through their program that resembles an apprenticeship/work scholars program.
 1. how do we organize/support these kinds of programs in Sustainability.
 2. What do we need to organize/promote these conversations/opportunities?
 - a. advising/mentoring programs
 - b. Degree maps/menus
 - c. We need an organized directory of what we have done, and want to do