What is Devised Theatre?

Devised theatre refers to a method of theatre making in which the script is created through collaborative work by a group of performers/designers. From its conception to now, an/(one's) ivory tower was crafted by NMU students and faculty. Welcome to the world premiere!

A note on the show:

This live virtual production was rehearsed almost exclusively via Zoom. Though originally intended to be a filmed live performance, this production was adapted to a digital format in accordance with COVID-19 university guidelines. None of the actors you are about to see are in the same room; they have been rehearsing virtually since November.
