Dear friends of NMU Theatre and Dance,

We can't believe there are only three weeks left in the semester! We're so excited to share our last few shows of the academic season with you, and wanted to inform you of a change of dates for Romeo and Juliet.

As Romeo and Juliet is our first full-length film, we are hard at work in post-production making sure we are crafting the best experience possible for our audiences. In order to accommodate our editing team, we will need to push our release date back once more. Romeo and Juliet will now be streaming May 10th – June 30th. Those who purchase tickets for any night of the show will have full access to the filmed production at any time between those dates. If you have already purchased a ticket, don't worry – all tickets will transfer over to the new dates, so there are no additional steps you need to complete.

We are thrilled with how the production is coming along and are eager to share it with all of you... thank you for your patience! In the meantime, please join us for our Spotlight Variety Show (April 15-17) and the 2021 North Coast Dance Festival (April 22-24). Tickets for all of our productions are available at tickets.nmu.edu; please contact the Berry Events Ticket Office at 906-227-1032 or ticket@nmu.edu with any ticketing questions.

Go Wildcats!

Sincerely,

The Northern Michigan University Department of Theatre and Dance
