SHERRIE

Mama, can I talk to you?

JUSTICE CHARLIER

Sure baby, what is it? Destiny steal your body lotion again?

SHERRIE

I think I need to go.

JUSTICE CHARLIER

(beat) This about that boy?

SHERRIE

This, all of it, it's just not the person I came out here to be. I used to be happy. I used to make people happy. Twice I lost the only person ever looked at me like I was a star... or at least could be.

JUSTICE CHARLIER

I ever tell you 'bout Maxine Diamond, sugar?

SHERRIE

Who?

JUSTICE CHARLIER

Before all this I came out here just like you. Soul singer, the new disco diva! Maxine Diamond. And I was good. Even sang backup on a couple big records. But I tell ya, the sweetest memory I got is still with Edgar Calhoun, April fourteenth, nineteen seventy five.

SHERRIE

Edgar?

JUSTICE CHARLIER

High school sweetheart. April fourteen I had a man tell me he loved me... Really love me. A dozen years go by, I never felt anything like that since.

SHERRIE

Then why did you leave him?

JUSTICE CHARLIER

I don't know. I suppose back then being adored by one person didn't seem to be enough. I didn't know I was chasing something that wasn't real. My heart was with Edgar but my head...
