

The NMU Center for Native American Studies and the All My Relations Diabetes Connection present

Circle for Diabetes Health

Friday, November 22
10 am to noon

Pioneer Rooms A & B
Don H. Bottum University Center
NMU Campus in Marquette, Michigan

Join us for a talking circle open to all who are touched by diabetes.

November is Native American Heritage Month and National Diabetes Month. Using the Medicine Wheel as a guide to total wellness, we will explore how diabetes affects the health of Native American communities. Learn the latest information on preventing and managing this disease, and discover how you can make a difference through academic research, patient care and education, and community outreach.

Ladies are encouraged, but not required, to wear a long skirt out of respect for this gathering.

For more information, call the Center for Native American Studies at 906-227-1397 or visit www.nmu.edu/nativeamericans

Raeanne Madison, Ojibwa
Founder of All My Relations Diabetes Connection

Light refreshments provided.
