

POW W O W W O W W

You are invited to the 22nd annual
"Learning to Walk Together" traditional pow wow
SATURDAY, MARCH 14

VANDAMENT ARENA - NMU CAMPUS - MARQUETTE, MICH.

Head Veteran Dancer - Rodney Loonsfoot

Honor Guard - KBIC Veterans

Head Female Dancer - Tonia Jo Hall

Head Male Dancer - Shane Mitchell

Host Drum - Wazijaci

Invited Drum - Little Horse

Invited Drum - Sturgeon Bay

Invited Drum - Woodland Singers

Invited Drum - Four Thunders

Emcee - Bucko Teeple

Arena Director - Robert Blackdeer

Fire Keeper - Sam Doyle

Need more information? Can you volunteer?

Call: 906-227-1397 E-mail: nasa@nmu.edu

URL: www.nmu.edu/nativeamericans

This powwow is being hosted by the NMU Native American Student Association with support from the Center for Native American Studies, Sheila Devlin, Globe Printing, the Keweenaw Bay Indian Community, the Multicultural Education and Resource Center, Midtown Bakery, the NMU Office of the President, and LR and Christine Swadley. Special thanks to the NMU American Indian Science and Engineering Society, the NMU Native American Language and Culture Club, Chris Kibit and the NMU Hospitality Management Program, Chris Busch and the PEF staff, and all of our volunteers.

GLOBE
PRINTING, INCORPORATED

Dancers, singers, and artists from all over the Great Lakes region.

Doors open at 11 a.m.

Grand Entries

Noon and 6 p.m.

Feast & Hand Drum Contest

Saturday at 4 p.m.

The feast will take place at the D.J. Jacobetti Complex.

Admission is $5.

Free to NMU students w/NMU ID.

Vendors by invitation only.

Like our event on Facebook!

Northern
Michigan
University